MEMORANDUM

ACS M09-27

TO: Medicaid Physicians, Other Providers with Prescribing Authority, and Pharmacy Providers

FROM: Kenneth S. Fink, MD, MGA, MPH
Med-QUEST Division Administrator

SUBJECT: STATE PHARMACY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SPAP)

1. ELIGIBLE MEDICARE PART D PLANS FOR 2010
2. COPAYMENT UPDATE – EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2010
3. NEW CONTACT INFORMATION FOR SPAP QUESTIONS
EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 16, 2009

1. State Pharmacy Assistance Program (SPAP) Eligible Medicare Part D Plans for 2010

Twenty-eight (28) plans will be available for SPAP coverage in Hawaii, of which sixteen (16) plans are continuing and twelve (12) plans are new, effective January 1, 2010. There will be ten (10) plans NO longer available. Please see the attachment for a list of the changes, plan identification number, and toll-free telephone number.

2. Copayment Update – Effective January 1, 2010

Effective January 1, 2010, the SPAP will be updated with the new Part D drug copayments:

- a. For Part D full benefit dual eligibles (Medicare Part D and Medicaid) up to 100% of the Federal Poverty Limit (FPL): $1.10 for generic/preferred multi-source and $3.30 for other medications.
- b. For other Part D eligibles up to 150% of the FPL: $2.50 for generic/preferred multi-source and $6.30 for other medications.

SPAP claims for Medicare Part D eligibles will continue to be processed by Affiliated Computer Services-Pharmacy Benefits Manager (ACS-PBM) without any change. Please see the attached table for a billing summary. For reference to the SPAP claims process previously published, please see provider memorandums (ACS) M05-12 (dated December 23, 2005) and/or P06-03 (dated January 30, 2006) at the website

<http://www.himed-questffs.org>; under the Communications heading, click on Provider Memos. If you have questions regarding Medicaid claims processing, please contact the ACS-PBM call center at 1-877-439-0803.

3. New Contact Information for SPAP Questions Effective November 16, 2009
